The author explained to Mr. P. R. Jayarajan the personal status laws applicable to Hindus, Muslims and Christians. In this first volume, Maraj explained Hinduism and divorce on the basis of the Hindu Marriage Act 1955, adoption and maintenance based on the Hindu Adoption and Maintenance Act 1956, and minorities and guardianship in accordance with the Hindu Minority and Guardianship Act 1955. He then explained the concepts of marriage, divorce and dhow, and the recognition of paternity, guardianship and maintenance, as applied to Muslims. In part of the other laws, he explained the three main laws, namely the Private Marriage Act 1954, the Indian Christian Marriage Act, 1872, and the Divorce Act, 1869. The stream of language in the whole book goes in simple Tamil and any one can very easily understand these difficult topics. Because this is so popular, it has now come in the celebrated eighth edition. The price is accessible to everyone for this meticulously printed and restricted book.
